JOHN CALLEIJA

A design house at heart, Calleija is home to some of the world's most breathtaking and beautiful creations. Characterised by mesmerising detail, exquisite jewels and superior craftsmanship, Calleija designs embody style and glamour like no other.

Inspired by the beauty of Mother Nature and her gemstones, including the rare Argyle Pink Diamonds, each design is conceptualised on paper in fine detail before being matched to the Artisan Jeweller whose skills will carefully bring the jewel to life. Specialising in crafting unique and timeless designs, our workshop incorporates traditional jewellery making techniques, whilst embracing striking contemporary artistry.

The selection of a Calleija design is a deeply personal experience and a true journey of discovery. We are honoured to create jewels that capture individual style and will be treasured for years and generations to come.

We look forward to welcoming you to our London, Gold Coast and Sydney boutiques to view our exquisite array of bespoke handcrafted designs, and witness them being brought to life before your eyes by our award-winning Designers and Master Jewellers.

ARGYLE PINK DIAMONDS SELECT ATELIER

Inspired by the beauty of Argyle Pink Diamonds, John Calleija is internationally renowned for his stunning jewels featuring these rare diamonds. Forged over a millenia the soft shades of blush rose pinks, vivid purplish pinks and the especially rare intense red diamonds create an incredible palette from which the master jewellers of Calleija create exceptional beauty.

Discovered in the remote lands of Western Australia, the Argyle Pink Diamond mine will soon cease production. The growing rarity of these diamonds is captivating investors and connoisseurs alike. So rare are Argyle Pink Diamonds that less than an entire year's supply of pink diamonds over half a carat in size would fit into the palm of your hand, while the number of blue and red diamonds can be measured in one single teaspoon. Each year the pinnacle of these rare coloured diamonds, only 50 to 60 diamonds annually, are released at the invitation only Argyle Pink Diamonds Tender. As one of the world's leading Argyle Pink Diamond Specialists, Calleija has years of knowledge and expertise in selecting the most prized of these diamonds.

Rare jewels like Argyle Pink Diamonds are entrusted to only the world's finest jewellers. For over two decades Calleija are proud to be an Argyle Diamonds Select Atelier. Preserving the legacy of this iconic diamond, Calleija is dedicated to the responsible and ethical journey of these diamonds from mine to you, the final guardian of these rare gifts of nature.

Argyle Pink Diamonds – an Heirloom to be treasured for generations.
