

Welcome to the world of Calleija, where beauty, colour and design
rewrite the rule book.

John Calleija

True artistry seeks to enhance the beauty of its subject, neither detracting from nor altering its inherent magnificence, but rather bringing it to life. At Calleija, we are entrusted to take these amazing works of nature's art along their precious journey, a responsibility we don't take lightly. We call it the last three feet. This is where special memories are created. As Designers and Master Jewellers, we are honoured to create bespoke masterpieces to present to their new custodians. The joy these jewels bring are moments to be cherished, with new chapters ahead of them yet to be told.

At Calleija we take great pride in our role in these remarkable journeys.

A Calleija design is a deeply personal creation, both for the wearer and for the Master Jeweller who brings it to life. Each design is crafted by blending traditional jewellery-making techniques and contemporary artistry, to result in an exceptional bejewelled creation. We delight in working with our clientele to create bespoke pieces which reflect the wearer's individual style and will be treasured for generations to come.

We invite you to visit our artisan workshops at our Marina Mirage, Gold Coast, or Mayfair, London, boutiques - where you'll be able to witness Calleija's award-winning Master Jewellers at work. Or visit our Sydney boutique in Martin Place and view the mesmerising detail of our exquisite Calleija jewels.

ARGYLE PINK
DIAMONDS
SELECT ATELIER

Calleija is one of the few jewellers in the world appointed as an Argyle Pink Diamond Select Atelier. This coveted title affords us the opportunity to attend the invitation-only Argyle Diamond Tender and to acquire these rare diamonds directly from the source.

These rarest of diamonds, hailing from Western Australia's remote Kimberley region, range in shades from blush pinks to purplish pinks and, yet rarer still, the remarkable blues and reds. Calleija is renowned for designing the most extraordinary Argyle Pink Diamond jewellery, and each year creates ground-breaking new designs inspired by the brilliant hues of these gems. Clientele come from around the world to view the unique works of art showcased within our boutiques, or to work closely with our Master Jewellers to create their own bespoke piece.

Calleija is dedicated not only to design excellence and exceptional craftsmanship, but to maintaining the integrity of these much-admired diamonds by ensuring their ethical trade. The Argyle Diamond Mine will cease production in just a few short years, meaning these jewels are steadily becoming rarer and more collectible. To own an Argyle Pink Diamond from Calleija is to capture a moment in time, and possess a piece of Australian history. Visit one of our boutiques to choose or design your own unique Pink Diamond creation, to gift to someone you love or add to your own collection.
